

Call for Volunteers: Survey Study

Re-building Life after Migration

Who are we?

We are an international group of researchers from the USA (Institute of Multicultural Counseling and Education Services—IMCES), Australia (University of South Australia, University of Adelaide, Australian Migrant Resource Centre—AMRC, Multicultural Youth South Australia—MYSA), and Canada (Newcomer Centre of Peel (NCP)).

What is the study about?

This survey study will explore:

- ◆ Experiences of refugee and migrant youth settling into the USA and factors relevant for their successful settlement and wellbeing
- ◆ Effectiveness of support services currently available to youth and their families, and
- ◆ How policymakers and service providers can be impacted to better help refugee and migrant youth, and their families

Your privacy and confidentiality are completely guaranteed. This research has no connection with any political or religious groups, the government, Immigration Department or other similar organisations.

Who are we looking for?

- ◆ Young people aged 15-24 years old
- ◆ From a refugee or non-refugee migrant background
 - from South America, Africa, the Middle East or Asia
- ◆ Who have lived in the USA for more than 12 months and less than 15 years

If you meet these criteria, we would love to have you in our study. For more information or to participate in this study, please contact:
