

Celebration of Traditions Mehregan – Persian Harvest Festival Orange County Fair Oct. 1-2, 2005

IRVINE, CA – September 22, 2005 – the Network of Iranian-American Professionals of Orange County (NIPOC) on behalf of the Southern California based Persian Community announces that Mehregan, the Persian Harvest Festival, will be celebrated on Saturday October 1 and Sunday October 2, from 11 a.m. to 11 p.m. at the Orange County Fair & Exposition Center, 88 Fair Drive Costa Mesa, CA 92626

The 10th annual event celebrates Persian culture with music, dance, artwork, crafts, traditional Persian cuisine, Traditional Tea House, and costumes. The front gate at the festival, designed to evoke Persepolis, the capital of the Persian Empire will greet thousands of visitors. The festival represents Iranian Americans' interest in their heritage and commitment to share that heritage with the community. Iranian Americans pride themselves on maintaining a commitment to education, business and social causes in the tightly woven community of over 500,000 in Orange and Los Angeles Counties. They have strong cultural connections and a strong value system.

Mehregan (pronounced 'meh-re-gahn'), is celebration of nature from ancient Persian Goddess Mehr, the spirit of love, knowledge and commitment.

Food, Fun, Entertainment – Persian Style!
