PERSIAN RUGS

2500 Years of Art, Culture, and Craftsmanship

DR. KHOSROW SOBHE

Saturday, April 26 – 11:30AM and 1:30 PM

Dr. Khosrow Sobhe, board member of the Textile Museum Associates of Southern California, Editor in Chief of Iranian Hand Woven, and author of numerous articles, discusses the history of Persian rugs and the return to traditions. Included will be a video of the craft of creating a rug. Prior to the lecture, enjoy listening to Santoor, the Persian dulcimer, played by Miss Lida Asgari. Carpets will be on display all day, and a weaver will give a weaving demonstration with an opportunity for attendees to try their hand at it. Sponsored by the Persian Cultural Arts Council.

Admission: $5
